

Inclusion Staff Needed: Summer Inclusion Program*

The Summer Inclusion Program, a Charlottesville area collaborative project, announces the opening of positions for inclusion staff in two programs: Charlottesville Parks and Recreation and Live Arts Theater. Inclusion staff will provide assistance to children and pre-teens who need a little extra support to be included successfully. Typically, children in need of extra support include children on the autism spectrum, children with ADHD, and children with intellectual, learning, or emotional disabilities. This is a fabulous summer employment opportunity for people who care about children and are looking for something that is creative and fun to do this summer.
